VOTE ON THE M'GAUGHEY IMPEACHMENT ARTICLES.

AUSTIN, Tex., May 5.—Col. Baker in the morning will turn over the keys of the land office to Col. McGaughey. It is understood that several resignations of clerkships will be required, if not voluntarily offered, by clerks in the office who have gone back on the chief. At one time it looked like he would go. Now they go. Not a single one of the old-time force is reported to have offended.

The sudden termination of the impeachment trial was not unexpected. It was generally recognized that while the state made a fine showing on the law it failed absolutely on the facts.

The land commissioner is a hero to-night and he has lost no prestige by his trial.

SENATE.

AUSTIN, Tex., May 5.—The session of the senate opened with a little breeze over the motion to adopt the free conference report on the liquor tax bill. Postponement was refused and then a call of the senate was ordered on the motion to adopt.

The senate resolved into a court of impeachment and the cross-examination of Mr. McGaughey was resumed. Numerous questions were asked about dates and sales, to which the respondent replied, "The records will show," his memory of dates not being sufficient. He placed the lands on the market to others than actual settlers because under his construction of section 22 [illegible] lands were detatched from other unappropriated public lands and he considered them unfit for settlement. This he learned from the classifications. He had several conversations with Mr. Boaz; didn't remember the dates of his conversations; didn't make any inquiry about the Liberty county lands. Went by the official classifications.

In reference to Chambers county lands, applications for which had been rejected, the respondent testified that the maps were rarely compared except in boundary question, The witness lived in a house belonging to Mr. E. R. McLean and had paid for rent, $147. in work upon the place; had built a barn, painted the house and made other improvements; did not sell lands under a construction of section 22, that would construe a 100 section block as detatched.

The respondent rested his case here.

The state offered the testimony of the respondent before the committee of investigation as rebuttal. The counsel for the respondent retired for consultation.

The senate then resumed its sitting and Mr. Cranford offered a resolution fixing the compensation for witnesses at $1 per day and 3 cents a mile for traveling expenses.

Amended to $2 a day.

As a substitute Mr. Kearby offered a resolution fixing the compensation the same as is paid to witnesses in felony cases. Adopted.

Again in court, the evidence of the respondent before the investigating committee was read at the request of the court.

Mr. Breeding was introduced but could tell nothing about the Harris county lands.

The state rested and all the witnesses were discharged.

Mr. Henderson of the managers announced that the counsel on both sides would submit the case without argument.

This was satisfactory and the court adjourned.

In the senate again, the senate took up the house bill making an additional appropriation for the per diem pay of members and passed it. The bill appropriates $20,000.

The senate passed the house bill appropriating $10,000 for contingent expenses of the legislature.

The senate refused to take up the mechanic's lien law.

The senate bill to transfer certain counties from one supreme judicial district to another passed.

Adjourned till 3 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The senate met at 3 o'clock and by a vote of 14 to 7 adopted the free conference committee report on the taxing bill.

A motion to reconsider resulted in breaking of a quorum.

The court of impeachment then convened and the question of voting on articles of impeachment came up.

It was decided by an overwhelming vote to take the vote in open session.

Mr. Lewis seemed to be the only one who wished to record himself on the quiet.

Then the president, Mr. Crane, had the first article read, and put the question this way:

"All those who believe the respondent guilty as charged in the article read, will answer aye as their names are called and the contrary will vote no."

Senator McComb objected to the form of the question. It might be that the fact in some articles might be admitted and still there would be no room for conviction.

Mr. Crain said in his judgment he had put the question properly and would entertain no motion or suggestion unless the senate retired into the consultation room.

This was final. It was either to retire and frame the question to be submitted suggested by the rules, or to convict the old man on admitted facts, which the majority deemed immaterial.

The senate retired and decided that the question should be, "Shall the article be sustained?"

The question put thus, the vote upon articles not sustained by demurrers resulted in each article being defeated thus ended the impeachment trial and McGaughey comes out victor.

On articles 25 and 26 the vote was unanimous for not sustaining it—27 nays.

It required 18 votes to convict. The highest votes for conviction were in articles 3, 4, 7, 9, 10, 11, and 12.

On the "false certificate" charges the court was unanimous for acqittal.

A number of senators congratulated the old man on his big triumph and some hugged him.

Among the first to extend congratulations was land commissioner pro tem, Baker. The old man pulled himself away to go home and tell his wife the good news.

Uncle Jake's friends celebrated his acquittal down town in regulation shape.

Just after the verdict several old men rushed into the senate chamber with tears in their eyes inquiring, "Where is the old man?"

It was impossible to transact any further business. After deciding upon the form of the decision of acquittal, an adjournment was taken until 9:30 to morrow.

Fair Open on Sundays.

Chicago, Ill., May 5.—Jackson park will be open next Sunday, and the payment of 50 cents will entitle any member of the great public to entrance just as it has the past six days. There will be no formal action, and there will be no official announcement made, but the gates will be open. A gentleman intimately connected with the government of the fair said: "Superintendent Tucker has had no instructions to close the gates on the Sabbath. It has been the rule in the past to have the gates open on the Sabbath, and as there has been no order to make a change, Mr. Tucker will continue as usual. He holds, and of course he will be upheld in his opinion, that he has no authority to close the gates until he is officially instructed to do so. The entire force of guards will be on duty and the public will not be allowed to enter any of the buildings except horticultural hall and the greenhouses. We will then wait for developments. The park will be open every Sunday during the period of existence of the fair, and in a few weeks the department buildings will be open, but the machinery will never be run on the Sabbath."

Kansas Boodle Investigation.

Topeka, Kan., May 5.—The senate boodle investigating committee arrived here this morning and at once resumed its work. Representative Lupfer testified he was approached by representative Bugard of Wyandotte county with a proposition to buy his vote for J. K. Hudson for state printer for $500, but Lupfer said his vote was not for sale. Lupfer also swore to several other occasions when Bugard had offered money for his vote.

Representative McKinney also testified to various offers of Bugard to buy his, McKinney's, vote.

Crash of a Wild Train.

Lafayette, Ind. May 7.—One of the most horrible wrecks in the history of railroading occurred on the Big Four this morning, in which ten people were killed and many injured. The train was the east-bound passenger, leaving Chicago at 9 p. m. The accident was caused by the failure of the air brakes to work. The engineer undoubtedly discovered this before reaching the cut beyond the Wabash river, as vigorous whistling of the engine for brakes could be heard while the train was still a mile west of the city. The engineer's desperate effort to stop the train was shown by the large amount of sand thrown by him in the bridge through which the train came just before the fatal crash.

The engine dashed out of the bridge over the Wabash river at a speed of not less than sixty miles per hour, crashing into the depot building and carrying a portion of the depot and train sheds several hundred feet.

The engine left the track, and the baggage car, two postal cars and the express car piled in one promiscous mass, burying a score or more of victims in the awful pile of debris.

Will Have Birds' Nests Soup.

The certified Chinese visitor of high degree to the World's fair demands a supply of all the table delicacies to which he has been accustomed in the celestial kingdom. In compliance with this demand a big consignment of teas of the best quality, dried smoked ducks, bird's nests and other choice edibles have been received. In the consignment there were 120 cases of tea valued at $5 per pound, 50 barrels of ducks, and 12 hogsheads of bird's nests.

The Democratic Party on Trial.

Democratic congressmen do not seem inclined to prosecute unwaveringly any great and greatly needed reform at the risk of losing severally their own seats or losing generally the posession of power and spoils for their party. They see the country endangered by clouds of greedy vampires and hordes of unscrupulous adventurers; they see the people oppressed by growing extortions in tariff, internal revenue and other taxes; they see the land running to government like rivers draining into one fathomless stormy sea, yet they are clearly inclined to shirk any responsibility involving any hazard whatever to themselves or to the party even if the country goes to thunder. Self first, relatives and friends next, party next and country last. That is the way the programme of the average partizan of to-day runs. It is to be hoped that the tariff reform so long preached by the democratic leaders means something more than offices, honors and salaries for these leaders. It is to be wished that these partizan orators meant what they said time again on the stump about punishing the pension thieves and other plundering armies of the land, and that they will not be afraid to apply the remedies that they preached. It is to be hoped that the partizan and his party will not take precedence over the people and the country when congress meets in September. If the democrats in the house and the senate show a craven white feather when congress meets again in September and refuse to do what they stand deliberately pledged to do because it may appear a trifle dangerous or risky for the party, then ty. In trying to save their party by cowardice the partizans will have wrecked it forevermore. The democratic party is on trial. The people of the country expect some great reforms. They expect the democratic party to make good its promises upon which the power was placed in its hands. Let campaign trimmers, ambitious adventuerers, self-seeking leapers, shifty demagogues and subterranean schemers hold the party back at this critical time and the people will never trust it again. The only true way for the democratic party to keep in power is for it to keep its promise to the people. The tariff must be reformed, the pension rolls cut down and the civil service rules enlarged and enforced. The country is ripe for several steps foward and the democratic party must have the honesty and courage to go foward or it goes to the rear. But it will not and can not have the honesty and courage demanded for the occasion if the serpent trail and pestilential slime of spoils politics persists in defacing its organization and polluting its councils and meditations. Not only is the democratic party on trial, but free representative government through party agitation and party agencies is on trial. Continued and grievious experience goes to recall and impress more and more forcibly the warnings of George Washington against the evils of party spirit. He allowed that in governments of a monarchical cast patriotism might look with indulgance, if not with favor, upon such a spirit. But in popular governments, in governments purely elective, he held it to be a spirit which thoughtful patriots should discourage and which the salutary force of public opinion should vigilantly and firmly repress. And in the light of nearly a century of observation of the workings of parties in this country, some of the best contemporary thinkers are about ready to conclude that it is morally impossible to main[illegible] clean and efficient condition for public duty and political usefulness. They argue only too wisely that elements of selfish appetite are found inseperable from party organization; that this appetite is whetted to a madder lust by every taste of victory bringing spoils and by every taste of defeat which takes the spoils away, so that finanlly party spirit swallows up public spirit, and country and patriotic duty are lost in party and partizan fidelity. There is but one conceivable escape from this despairing conclusion. It is to push the principle of civil service reform until there would be nothing left for the spoils appetite to feed on in the victorious wake of any party organization. Such an organization could exist then only for pure political purposes and would appeal to the confidence and support of the people only on the strength of its public usefulness.—Dallas News.

Nineteenth Centennial.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 5. The projectors of the christian nineteenth centennial at Jerusalem in 1900, the chief mover in which is Col. Jesse E Peyton, met in historic Carpenters' hall yesterday. Rev. H. C. McCook presided and George C. Mercer acted as secretary.

Col, Peyton stated the object of the centennial to be a congress of all nations and to mark the 1900 anniversary of the birth of Christ. He further said that a committee would prepare resolutions and present them for adoption at a public meeting to be held in front of Independence hall on July 4. The resolutions will then be sent to Chicago for consideration by the parliament or religons at the world's fair.

union of Mohammedans, Israelites, and christians would be a remarkable thing to accomplish, but if it could be done it would be a most auspicious opening of the 20th century.

Tornado in South Carolina.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 3.—A tornado passed through a section of Lexington and Newberry counties to day unroofing houses for miles and destroying barns, stables and out houses. Much damage was done to orchards A white woman was killed and a number of persons were injured.

Rev. T. H. Dixon is one of the most noted divines of New York city. His fame is national and his opinions are regularly quoted by the leading papers of the country. He recently said:

"The next four years will be eventful in the history of our nation. In these four years will be formed the lines of real battle along which the hosts of freemen are to fiight in the next generation. Tradition, memories and ghosts must go to the rear. New men and new measures for a new generation and a new world! The coming twentieth century holds its own problems. The children of this century must settle them. With all its "wild dreams" and "impossible" propositions, I say again the people's party has sounded the battlecry for the next generation.

TO RESIST THE ATTACK—of the germs of Consumption, Scrofula, Grip, Malaria, and many other diseases—means fight or die for all of us. These germs are everywhere in the air we breathe. The odds are in favor of the germs, if our liver is inactive and our blood impure.

What is needed most is an increase in our germ-fighting strength. To do this successfully you need to put on healthy flesh, rouse the liver to vigorous action, so it will throw off these germs, and purify the blood so that there will be no "weak spot," nor soil for germ-growth.

We claim for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, that it does all this in a way peculiar to itself. It is the development of generations of medical thought—it has stood the test of a quarter of a century of cures.

That is why the makers can guarantee it. In every trouble caused by torpid liver or impure blood, if the "Discovery" fails to benefit or cure, your money is refunded.

TURN the wheels of progress.

GRAYBACKS, flourish on mossbacks.

THE DEMOCRAT loves its enemies—"out of sight."

CLIMB the heights of reform and let the devil rage beneath.

HE who deserts a cause in the hour of need is no American.

THE tariff agitator has took to the woods, until the next campaign.

"TIME is flying, souls are dying," while the gold bugs are marching on.

THE present legislature will sing in the near future, "Hark from the tomb."

CLEVELAND says that the present Sherman silver law must be repealed.

THE Dallas News should fire a volley of its snap shots at the Texas cyclone.

No one man knows it all. Combine the wisdom of the human race and we yet grope in the dark.

TARIFF reform is dangerously ill. Dr. Watterson and others are powerless to revive the patient.

THE Texas legislature should indorse Mills again before it adjourns. There is nothing like honoring a disobedient servant.

THE wheels of endeavor will some-day run "smack dab" over the lantern jawed community mossback.

AN individual, who contracts debts and becomes extravagant soon becomes a bankrupt. Just so with a government.

THE music of the next campaign is already being heard. The buglers are out and the masses are preparing for the fray.

MR. ECONOMY and Hon. J. W. Bailey are at outs. Bailey parted company with the former gentleman when the vote on the great clerk steal was taken.

Two dollars a day is very poor remuneration for a Texas legislator, but it reminds us of the negro parson: "Poor preach poor pay."

THE Almighty never intended that a trio of strong, able bodied men should live high and do nothing all summer, while all the rest raced and cotton patch. If the shoes fit the railroad commissioners let them wear them.

THE Salvation army has struck Wylie. It is said that Tom Perkins, of the Rustler, will soon abandon the newspaper business and enter the theological field in defense of sanctification. Tom has "cheek" and "gall" and we will not be surprised at any of his "cranky" turns.

The man who succeeds best,
Has to be a hustler;
And when he stops to rest,
He avoids the Wylie Rustler.

THE above was clipped from the Wylie Rustler, but a slight mistake was made by our compositor in reproducing. Beg pardon Tom.

A SEVERE STORM.

LAST Saturday evening, north Texas was visited by a heavy storm and rain. At Gainesville and Whitesboro, houses were unroofed. A south-bound Santa Fe freight train, near Fair Plains, was struck by the cyclone which blowed every one of the sixteen cars from the track. One man was killed and several injured. At Plano one box car was blown from the track. Several houses were blown off the blocks at Howe.

Arizona under ancient irrigation was once well watered. An attempt is to be made to make history repeat itself.

THE movement to have the legislature adjourn and then meet right off in special session at $5 per day is supposed to have been put on foot by Austin boarding house keepers.

IT seems the delight of some people to try to injure a young man when starting out in the world to battle for himself. This should not be the case. You ought to take him by the hand and give him encouragement.—Wylie Rustler.

THIS wail comes from young "Whiskers," who had just received 50 cents from an unfortunate subscriber, and who ordered the Rustler stopped at once. Never mind Tom, the chilly winds of disappointment will, we hope, cease to blow through your whiskers some day.

Talk to the Farmers.

WELBORN, Tex., May 7.—Major A. J. Rose addressed the people of this locality yesterday morning on the subject and advantages of "Organization." His remarks were well chosen and impressive. He showed the necessity of farmers mingling together as they would do in a co-operative association of the kind he mentioned. It would cause them to study each other's interests develop their minds in matters of business and place them in a position to know the value of their products and to dispose of same to a better advantage.

He dwelt upon the importance and necessity of education to make a successful farmer, that an enlightened and well educated farmer was a successful farmer and always ready to grasp advantages. The greatest drawback in the co-operative business was the indolent farmer who always thought his brother farmer had some special advantage over him and that he was constantly being taken advantage of. Educate your children, instill it in their minds that of all honorable occupations the farmer stood in the lead. The brain faculty must be cultivated as well as the soil, and when this was done farmers would prosper and derive the benefits they were entitled to.

Much interest was taken in the talk and the association will no doubt be greatly benefitted and encouraged thereby. Four new applications were received for membership.

Professors D. Adriance, R. H. Price, and J. W. Carson of the agricultural and mechanical college were in attendance and mingled their encouraging ideas with the farmers. The general appearance would impress one that a steady and lasting improvement was moving forward here and that people are in the midst of a prosperous season.

Farmers are generally well up with their work and crops doing well. Cotton chopping has commenced and will soon be in full blast.

A London cablegram says: A report from the continent shows the drouth and heat have spoiled the beet root and the winter wheat crops. An enormous rise of sugar prices is in progress.

Not Refugee Catchers.

The United States of America will not be and cannot be made, no matter what the opinion of the senate that is so far from the people, a refugee catcher of the czar of Russia. The construction of the treaty which has been made between the United States and Russia will devolve upon the executive authorities of the United States when its interpretation is asked through request for the return under the extradition feature of persons whose sole crime is the protest of manhood againt tyranny of a creature setting himself up as chosen of God to be the scourge of those who fall under his sway. Abhorrent criminals may well be returned. The United States has no sympathy for assassins, but of all countries in the world this should be the most liberal in its treatment of what are described as merely political offenses. —Chicago Times.

GREENSBURG, Ind., May 8—Col. M. D. Tackett, who was a special agent under the Harrison administration for the allotment of lands in severalty to the Arapahoe and Cheyenne Indians, was surprised this morning to receive a telegram from D. M. Browning, commissioners of Indian affairs, asking if he would accept a like position in the allotment of lands in the Cherokee outlet.

The position pays $10 a day and traveling expenses. The democrats here, who with great unanimity have asked for office and have so far failed to connect, are almost paralyzed at this latest evidence of the lack of appreciation on the appointing power. Mr. Tackett is a staunch republican.

It is reported that the collapse of the revolt in Cuba was dne to the government buying off the leaders. This method was adopted because it was cheaper than fighting.

More Money Needed,

CISCO, Tex., May 8.—Receipts falling off and needs growing stronger, pretty well expresses the situation in Cisco to-night.

Only $1264.43 and a bill of lading for two cars of lumber. The building committee have thoroughly examined and find that the houses they thought would be easily repaired are total wreck; not a residence in all Cisco but will have to be rebuilt and no lumber or money to do it with.

Let anyone who may doubt that this town is a total wreck come here and sleep for a few nights on a plank with a box for a pillow.

Colonel Byrd and his force have carefully examined the debris, but contrary to expectations, have exhumed no dead and doesn't think there are any dead beneath the wreckage.

ALTO WIPED OUT.

Not a House Standing—Great Damage Done—Two People Hurt.

TYLER, Tex., May 8.—The town of Alto, a prosperous village ten miles from Tyler, on the Tyler and Southeastern road, is a total wreck from a terrible windstorm last night. Hundreds of people are homeless, as it is another Cisco affair—Every house is damaged.

The storm struck the town Sunday night and swept everything before it.

Hundreds of people are homeless. Business houses, sawmills, railroad depot, Baptist church, school houses and every residence is completely demolished.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley were badly injured by falling timbers.

Alto had just recovered from a very disastrous fire several months ago, but the storm has completely wiped the town out of existence.

Many are homeless, not a house standing in the town.

Tyler suffered considerably from the same tornado many houses blown down but no one injured.

Good-Bye Lease System.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 8.—The convict system, which has been in force since the early days of reconstruction in Arkansas, ceased to exist yesterday, when the present lessees turned the convicts and penitentiary over to the State. There are 750 convicts in the penitentiary. Already 348 of these have been hired out to planters, builders, and mine owners at figures that will almost support the whole 750.

Rail on the Track.

SHERMAN, Grayson Co., Tex. May 7.—To-night the pilot of engine 122, Houston and Texas Central railway, pulling an extra north bound freight, became entangled with a rail that had been placed across the track about five miles south of the city. But for the fact that the engineer had his engine well under control a serious wreck would have been inevitable. There is no clew to the would be train-wreckers.

PRESS MEETING.

The Texas Editors and Newspaper Preprietors.

DALLAS Tex., May 9.—Dallas is in the hands of the newspaper men tonight.

The morning trains coming into Dallas brought a great number of the genial knights of the paste pot and shears, to attend the three-days convention and excursion of their state association.

Nearly all who have wives brought them along and those who have no wives in many instances brought their mothers and sisters to add grace and utility to the workings of the association.

They were met at the trains by members of the local committee snd escorted to their hotels, where after hearty handshakes with acquanitances and fellow workers, and satisfying the wants of the inner man, they wended their way through the rain to the auditorium of the city hall, which had been set apart for their use and benefit by Mayor Connor. Never has there been shown such haste in squaring up with the secretary on dues as this morning showed, his desk for a time resembling that of a paying teller's at a prosperous bank.

Applications by the score accompanied by the cash were handed in, and Secretary Robinson and his efficient aid, W. D. Cox, had their hands full for a time in receiving and dispatching applications for membership and excursion privileges.

President Copeland called the meeting to order at 11:15, saying that it was time to "press the button," and set the machinery in motion. He then introduced Dr. A. M. Cochran, mayor pro tem, who delivered an eloquent address of welcome to the convention. He referred to the arrival of the "Harvey" in a few days and was loudly applauded.

President J. H. Copeland responded in behalf of the association, making a felicitious speech which was frequently interrupted by applause. He and Dr. Cochran in their speeches spoke vigorously against the division of the state. It seemed to be the unanimous verdict of the press representatives in the hall that division would not be tolerated.

The editors and their lady friends were given a royal reception at the Oak Cliff college by Prof. Edgerton, the faculty and pupils to-night. A literary and musical feast was served and also a feast in the dining hall of the college. Several hundred persons were present.

Tom Scurlock is a candidate for president and W. D. Cox is spoken of as a candidate for secretary.

F. G. Pierson of Henrietta, Chiefton and Bob Carver are are among the late arrivals.

The excursion will leave Dallas at 8:10 p. m. Friday, leaving the members of the association a day to prepare for their trip, and the Trinity river navigators are making heroic efforts to land the Harvey at the Dallas wharf on that day. A telegram was received from Passenger Agent Durant of the Wabash railroad asking the number who would go to Chicago on the World's Fair excursion. Secretary Robinson will send him a reply in the morning. From the talk heard, it will be the largest excursion ever made up of the quill-drivers of Texas.

The ladies will organize a Woman's Press association at the Windsor to-morrow and the equal suffragists will make an effort in the same direction. The number who will go to Chicago will be very large, as nearly all the newly elected members are here and will visit the Windy City before returning to their respective homes.

Rienzi M. Johnson of the Houston Post and Judge Arnold of the Lampasas Dispatch are the handsomest editors present with Gilliland of the Baird Star close behind them.

A Sad Case.

Forty years ago in the home of Judge Gray, one of the richest and most influential citizens of Frankfort, were gathersuch men as Marshall and Crittenden, the jurist, statesmen, knighthood of ante-bellum Kentucky, made this old family mansion their home. A bright, quick youth, the eldest son of the family, was petted and taught by these great lights. As the boy grew he profited by these associations and stood side by side with such classmates as Joe Blackburn. When the south called for her young manhood Tom Gray answered with the first. Brave, chivalrous, gentle and kind he won his way straight to the hearts of his comrades. The war closed and he surrendered a major on Gen. Buckner's staff. Broken in fortune he entered the fields of journalism with cuccess. Later he went to Mississippi, where thrice the people of Washington county made him high sheriff when naught but those as trne as steel could serve. Then again he went back to the reportorial field. Little by little drink gained a point here, a vantage there. It took away his opportunities and left him stranded. To-day, with a bowed, pinched face and weak and uncertain step, he left the Houston street prison, where he has been incarcerated on the charge of petty theft. The state's attorney saw only too plainly the evidences of tottering reason and dismissed the case, his friends in Denison taking him in charge. A clouded sunset of a life than whose sunrise there has scarcely been one brighter.—Dallas News.

Negro Colonization in Mexico.

HERMOSILLO, Mex., May 3.—The terms under which a valuable concession was recently granted by the Mexican government for the establishment of a negro colony in this state is being carried out. Several negroes have arrived and settled upon the lands. They are from Mississippi and Texas.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The Gates Open Sunday—Favored 1000 With Passes Enter.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 7.—The rule to close the gates of the fair Sunday was rigidly enforced to-day, at least so far as the ticket purchasing public was concerned. Fortunately hundreds who held passes were admitted, however, and allowed to wander about the grounds at will. It was a beautiful day and thousands of working men some with their families, went to the grounds under the aprehension that the gates would be open. When those tollers turned away they left in anything but a good humor. It was highly aggravating to them to see favored hundreds, even thousands entering the grounds on passes, while they who worked all week were excluded. The validity of the law closing the gates will be tested in the courts this week.

Duel to the Death.

FRESNILO, Mex., May 9.—A remarkable duel that resulted in the death of one of the principals and the fatal wounding of the other was fought here Saturday. Jacobo Valdez, a prominent and wealthy young merchant, and Plutarco Margro, a rising attorney, have been suitors for the hand of a well known society young lady of this city for several months. The two men had been fast friends, but they met Saturday and quarreled over their love affairs. They mutually agreed to settle their difference in the usual Mexican way. Margo proposed that the duel be to the death, and his challenge was promtly accepted. Knives having blades three inches long were the weapons selected. They chose their seconds and proceeded shortly after dark to a secluded spot above the city. A ten-foot space was roped off and the men went at each other at the call of time. They fought desperately for twenty minutes in the darkness when Margo fell pierced to the heart with the knife. Both men were horribly mutilated. Valdez fainted from loss of blood and was carried from the field of battle unconscious. His injuries will prove fatal. The seconds have been arrested.

From a personal letter to a correspondent in this city, Marion Cannon, of California, makes this remark: "There has been a contemptible effort to drive me out of the people's party, but if my letters indicate the feeling of the party it has falling flat, and the conspirators, rebuked by resolutions from all parts of the State. I assure you that they will not drive me out of the party for I will stay with them till hell freezes over."—Ex

Changing Diseases.

In that delightful book, "Ridder Grange," the husband of Pomona gives as his reason for not removing from a malarial neighborhood, that it don't do for a man at his time of life to go about changing his diseases and adding, that there are diseases incident to almost every locality, and he likes a disease he is used to.

Now, in case of malarial diseases, aside from the unwillingness of patients to "change diseases," it is generally not convenient to change their residences. If this were done in every case, some of our most thriving communities would be depopulated.

Nothing is left to do therefore but to fortify oneself against malarial influences. For this purpose Drs. Starkey & Palen's Compound Oxygen has proved itself in the past 23 years the most efficient thing in the world.

Any person desiring to change diseases for health should write us a plain statement of their case, when, if possible, the way will be pointed out. The consultation is without charge. Address Drs. Starkey & Palen, 1529 Arch Street, Philadelphia, or San Francisco, New York, and Toronto, Ont.

Nothing breaks a man's back

McKinney Budget.

MCKINNEY, Tex., May 4—Emeline Morris, the runaway girl, an account of which was published in the News a few days ago, was found by her uncle to-day at a farmhouse two miles from Melissa.

Last night an alarm of fire was sounded and a large crowd rushed to the lumber sheds of J. M. Wilcox & Son in East McKinney. The fire was soon extinguished without damage. Coal oil had been thrown on the lumber and fired. A bottle about half full of oil was found near by. No clew.

About 20 dwellings and six business houses are in course of construction. Not a house in the city is vacant. Business men are here almost daily in a vain search for houses.

A First-Class Hotel For Each Congressman.

Van Alstyne News: Hon. J. W. Bailey had sufficient reasons for voting for the resolution allowing a clerk for each congressman and he can explain this satisfactorily to his constituents. In fact, as the matter now stands, it would take five clerks to answer all demands on our congressmen.

One may infer from the above that Mr. Bailey, if he does his duty, will vote at the first opportunity for a bill giving to each congressman five clerks at $100 per month each. It is stated that he had "sufficient reasons" for voting for one clerk for each congressman to aid him in the implied extension of proper amenities to applicants, clients and campaign creditors. It is further stated that "it would take five clerks to answer all demands on our congressmen." If these demands must be answered and are such as to justify the act giving each congressman one clerk, then these demands if requiring five clerks, as the Van Alstyne News says they do, would logically justify an act giving the exceedingly busy young member of the fifth district five well paid and well fed secretaries. Assuming that it is just and expedient for a congressman to thrust his hand into the treasury and haul out $100 or $1 of public money to pay the expenses af his patronage and brokerage business, of his indebtedness for service during his last campaign, then it is just and expedient for said congressman to run his arm into the people's cash box up to the elbow or to the shoulder and rake out all that he needs to enable him to carry his district and keep in office. If a congressman has a right to take public money and pay it to his son or to a clerk whose duty it is to entertain influential applicants and political creditors merely to preserve the popularity of said congressman, then why not have the government pay for the cultivation of said congressman's farm so that his mind will not be distracted when he gets into the grass? The Van Alstyne News' suggestion of a pressing need for an appropriation to pay for five clerks is as logical and quite as excusable as an appropriation for one clerk. The mistake which Congressman Bailey's friends make is in contending that because he has too much private business to permit him to do the service as congressman for which he was elected and is paid, the government should pay some body to look after his private affairs and thus by double payment secure the benefit and blessing of his wisdom and statesmanship. The law for the pay of a congressman as such provides that he shall receive $5000 a year and certain contingent expenses. This presumes that he is to look after his campaign fences and private affairs for himself. If the pay is too little let him resign. The duty of a congressman contemplated by the constitution is not an overwhelming task It is simply to legislate. He owes it to his constituents and the country to address himself with singular diligence to this primary and paramount service and to leave mere matters of campaign handshaking, department exploring and spoils trading severely alone if they interfere in the least with his legitimate work. If the step taken in this matter of spoils clerks and campaign caterers is carried much farther each member will want at least five clerks and a thoroughly equipped hotel with all necessary attendants for the entertainment and comfort of his quota of the swarms who come with private demands upon the time of congressmen—all to be paid for by the government.—Dallas News.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE COLORADO LAKE CHAUTAUQUA.

The Colorado Lake Chautauqua Association (an organization existing under and by virtue of the laws of Texas) takes pleasure in announcing the following as coming within the perview of its aims and purposes:

First. "To promote the habits of systematic reading and study in nature, art, science, history, secular and sacred literature, in connection with the routine of daily life; to give college graduates a view of the college course; to secure for those whose educational privileges have been limited, the college student's general outlook upon the world and life, and to encourage close, connected, and persistent thinking."

Second. To provide ways and means of furnishing to the teachers of Texas, at the latest practicable cost, facilities for improving themselves in the science and art of teaching, as well as for acquiring a deeper and more thorough knowledge of the subjects embraced in the common school curriculum.

Third. To provide, at moderate cost, for all classes of our people—the lawyer, the physician, the merchant— suitable place and a periodical opportunity for unsurpassed physical recreation, and for mental, moral and spiritual elevation and improvement.

To carry out these purposes the Association has purchased one of the most eligible pieces of property to be found between the dam and the head of the lake navigation. It comprises about 1200 acres of land situated two and one-half miles above the dam, as the crow flies, or six miles by water, on the south bank of the Colorado river, on which has a frontage of three and one-half miles. The conformation of the land and the nature of the soil are such as to give it a drainage that is well nigh perfect. After the hardest rains, the surplus water at once passes down gentle declivities into the Colorado or one of the small tributaries. For this reason the property is remarkably free from that trio of pests, mud, malaria and mosquitoes.

Among other advantages characteristic of this property may be mentioned its easy accessibility, by land and water, from Austin; its high elevation above the sea and the surrounding country; the extensive and beautiful views that may be had from its many high points, and the full view of the Colorado lake.

IMPROVEMENTS.

Much of this property has already been divided into blocks, lots, street, alleys, drives. walks, and parks and is now of record.

On Chautauqua hill, that seems to have been designed by nature for this purpose, there is in course of erection a pavillion that, in point of architectural beauty, adaptability to its purpose and seating capacity, cannot be equaled south of Mason and Dixon's line. On the brow of this hill overlooking the lake, one hundred and fifty feet above its surface, commanding a matchless view of it in either direction for several miles may now be seen a that cannot be duplicated on the continent. No description of it can give one even a tolerble conception of its superior excellence. It has to be seen to be appreciated.

Among the contemplated improvements in the near future is where Texas youths may receive such a character of training and instruction as will fit them for pursuing their studies further in college or university, or for entering upon the active duties of life. The site of this institution, known as is one of unsurpassed fitness and beauty. It is an ideal place for "rearing the tender mind," for fashioning the plastic child into a model man. It is sufficiently near the city for religious and social purposes, and sufficiently far to escape moral and physical contamination.

It is a part of the contemplated plans to erect a large, commodious and on a site that seems by nature best adapted for this purpose. The object of this hotel will be to secure the patronage of those persons who seek refuge from the hot, malarial atmosphere of Southern Louisiana and Texas, in the summer season, and likewise to accommodate in the winter season, those who flee from the rigor of northern winters.

WATER.

The association will at once provide for an abundant supply of water. The feasibility of using electricity for pumping water has been satisfactorily demonstrated, and the power at the house at the dam will furnish electricity for this purpose.

It is a fact worthy of remark that the Chautauqua grounds are as near to the dam as Austin is. Hence all persons who may conclude to live permanently at the Chautauqua will have all the advantages of the city, with none of its disadvantages.

There will be three (possibly more) landings for every variety of river craft. The landings will be built with special reference to large boats.

An inclined railway will be constructed from one of the landings to the top of Chautauqua hill.

LIGHT.

The same wire that is to carry the electric fluid for pumping water in the day time, will be used at night for lighting the pavillion and private residences. The cost of this lighting will, in the opinion of Mayor McDonald, be much less than that made by kerosene and far more convenient.

TRANSPORTATION.

Captain Sheperd is now engaged in the construction of a big boat that will have a carrying capacity of 2000 people. This boat will make schedule trips and have a special landing place on the grounds of the Chautauqua association. In addition to this, every character of craft will ply between Austin and Chautauqua and fully meet, at small cost, all possible demands of transportation

SAFEGUARDS.

All persons who may cast their lot with the Chautauqua are assured that every precaution will be taken to protect them in their lives, morals and manners. None but persons of unquestionable character will be admitted to its privileges. Wine, whisky, beer, and all other things that tend to lower the moral standard, will be studiously excluded from the Chautauqua grounds. A special police force wil be on duty day and night to see that no one infringes the Chautauqua regulations.

AMUSEMENTS, RECREATION, ETC.

For the guests and patrons of Chautauqua the sources of amusement and recreation will be numerous, varied and of a high order. The lecture platform will be filled by the best talent that can be secured. Within the walls of the great pavillion the voices of the ablest lecturers in America will be heard. All questions and all shades of opinions will be represented. The Chautauqua is to be the people's great university, where all classes of men and women may come and drink deep and long draughts of knowledge. If one would hear the ablest and most modern and advanced thoughts on art, science, literature, history, religion, and economics, let him come to Chautauqua and he will hear them.

If one has fallen into a state of physical dilapidation and desires to recover most speedily his lost ground, he will find at Chautauqua all the physical appliances for building himself up anew. If one be fond of water he may swim, sail, row, or recline on the spacious deck of a palatial steamer. He may walk, or ride on horseback, or over long stretches of fine mountain roads, and at every step view a scenery that for softness, mellowness and beauty can not be surpassed. That rare combination of earth, sky and water from which the poet and painter draw their inspiration is to be seen here in the highest perfection.

ACCOMMODATIONS.

The situation of Chatauqua with reference to Austin, together with the nature, scope and variety of its exercises, renedrs it very necessary for a large number of people to remain permanently on the grounds during each season. The necessity of meeting the demands of this class of patronage is obvious. To this end a considerable part of the grounds have been divided into lots for camping purposes. These lots are being sold at reasonable prices and on very easy terms. The purchaser of a lot may buy a small tent or erect an inexpensive cottage on his lot and do his own cooking on a cheap scale, or, if he prefers, he may sleep in his tent or cottage and take his meals at a restaurant, which the Association will erect at some convenient place on its grounds; or, if he is financially able he may live in a sumptuous style at the hotel that will be erected for the accommodation of this class of patronage.

By these means one may live as inexpensively as he pleases at Chautauqua, and still live comfortably and enjoy all its advantages.

WE TELL YOU

nothing new when we state that it pays to engage in a permanent, most healthy and pleasant business, that returns a profit for every day's work. Such is the business we offer the working class. We teach them how to make money rapidly, and guarantee every one who follows our instructions faithfully the making of $200.00 a month.

Every one who takes hold now and works will surely and speedily increase their earnings; there can be no question about it; others now at work are doing it, and you, reader, can do the same. This is the best paying business that you have ever had the chance to secure. You will make a grave mistake if you fail to give it a trial at once. If you grasp the situation, and act quickly, you will directly find yourself in a most prosperous business, at which you can surely make and save large sums of money. The results of a few hours' work will often equal it weeks. Whether you are old or young, man or woman, it makes no difference,—do as we tell you, and success will meet you at the very start. Neither experience or capital necessary. Those who need for us are rewarded. Why not write us to-day for full particulars, free? H. E. ALLEN & CO.,
